HUMAN FIENDS.

Assault a Woman Ninety Years of Age

And Almost Sightless and Quite Deaf.

Bruised, Beaten and Choked Into Insensibility.

A Terrible Suspicion that the Perpetrators Were Persons Interested in Her Death.

SALT LAKE, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—Thieves made a brutal assault on Mrs. Burton, residing at 524 West North Temple street, yesterday morning. She is 90 years of age, almost sightless and deaf. She was awakened at about half past 3 o'clock by being seized by the throat and choked until she was unable to move. A silk handkerchief was tied over her mouth and a search of the premises made.

She struggled and attempted to cry out. Then the fiends struck and choked her into submission, bruising her face, cutting her chin and knocking out a front tooth in so doing. They secured an ax from an adjoining room with which to intimidate her and while one human fiend stood over her threatening the other reached under her bed, dragged out a tin box and broke it open. The plunder amounted to between $5 and $6, but as they proceeded to ransack the house, a miserable three room adobe, she again managed to scream and the ruffians decamped in time to avoid a neighbor who had at last heard the old woman's agonizing cries for help. Entrance to the house was made by removing a pane of glass from a window, and a bungling attempt was made to force the front door.

Mrs. Burton is a widow and is believed to be in good circumstances. She owns considerable property besides the premises she resides on and so far as known has no near relatives. The police incline to the opinion that the job was done by parties who would be material gainers by her death and on that hypothesis they are now working. Mrs. Burton is said to be a morose and penurious woman and her temperamental is such that those who know her prefer to let her alone.

A futile attempt was made to rob St. Peter's Catholic church on the corner of Fourth West and Fourth South street last Tuesday night. The thieves picked the lock of the door and gained admittance, but did not get anything as all the plate had been taken to a safe place in the bishop's house. They, however, made a sad havoc in the house of worship.

A HISTORIC JAIL.

The Prison in Which Joseph and Hyrum Smith Were Killed

CARTHAGE, Ill., May 18.—[Associated Press.]—Within the past few months overtures have been made by various parties to purchase the old jail building in this city. The old pile is historic, as it was within its walls that Joseph and Hyrum Smith, the Mormon prophets, were slain by a mob on the afternoon of June 27, 1844.

A number of years ago the property was purchased by ex-Treasurer James M. Browning, and by him vastly improved with additions and other modern appointments. The interior of the structure is handsomely furnished, and the casual visitor would have to make a very close inspection of the good work to see that it is of old fashioned walnut and more than fifty years old. Several people said to be Mormons from Salt Lake City, have recently asked Mr. Browning what he would sell the building for, but Mr. Browning placed a sum upon it that none have as yet been able to reach. All efforts to purchase the property have proved unavailing so far.

It is hardly believed that the old jail building will ever be removed from Carthage. Some people affect to believe that the bones of Joseph Smith are buried at Salt Lake and that it is intended to have the old jail removed to that city for a monument over his last resting place. There are very few people who know where Smith lies buried, and as they won't tell it is idle to speculate upon his place of burial. The old stone jail at Carthage is a massive structure and is evidently as sound as the day it was built.

Florida Editors Thriving For Gore.

OCALA, Fla., May 18.—The editors of Tennessee are not to be permitted to enjoy a monopoly of the "code of honor." There is blood on the face of the editorial moon in Ocala, between Colonel Louis J. Brumby, of "The Marion Free Press," and Colonel Thomas W. Harris, of "The New Capital." Pistols may be necessary to wipe out the language that has been used in both newspapers. Harris is about forty-five years old and weighs not over 110 pounds. Brumby is not much over twenty-one and a Georgian by birth. He owns "The Free Press" and "The Constitution" at Monticello. The affair is said to have gone no further than a reference of the matter to seconds, but both men are ready to fight, it is said.

A Crazy Farm Laborer's Suicide. SPOKANE, Wash., May 18.—Frank P. Robinson, a farm hand employed by A. W. Loomis, twelve miles east of this city, blew his brains out with a pistol at 9 o'clock this morning. He was considered slightly demented on religious subjects. He was 23 years old, and from letters on his person is supposed to have come from Grangerville, Idaho, where his parents are said to reside.

RUSSIAN EXTRADITION TREATY.

Severe Comments by "The London Daily Chronicle."

LONDON, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—"The Daily Chronicle" says in a leader on the Russo-American treaty: "We cannot understand the motives of the senate in conceding to Russia what was refused to Great Britain and France. Mr. Cleveland has made the American government the watchdog of Russian absolutism, as forty years ago it was the slave-catcher for southern planters. It will be long ere this blot on Mr. Cleveland's escutcheon will be wiped out."

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The extradition treaty with Russia is expected here by the next European mail, but has not yet reached the state department. Reports as to its receipt here are said by confidential officials at the White House and the state department to be destitute of truth. The promulgation of the treaty, it is anticipated, will follow closely upon its receipt in the ordinary routine of official business. Its arrival is expected within the next three or four days. Ratifications were exchanged in Russia on April 26.

THE CHEROKEE STRIP.

Negotiations Are at Last Completed.

Secretary Hoke Smith Says the President's Proclamation Will be Issued Sept. 15.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—Secretary Hoke Smith on behalf of the United States and Chief C. J. Harris, Treasurer E. E. Star, D. W. Lipe and J. T. Cunningham, authorized representatives of the Cherokee nation, this afternoon signed a contract which is the final step in the proceedings by which the United States becomes owner of the Cherokee strip. The number of acres ceded is 6,022,754.

Secretary Smith said today he hoped by expediting in every possible way the preparations for opening the strip to have everything in readiness for the president's proclamation on September 15.

The following were elected grand officers for the ensuing term: J. N. Jones, grand master; N. A. Morford, deputy grand master; N. H. Smith, grand secretary; Geo. F. Brown, grand treasurer; C. R. Bayless, grand warden.

Next session will be held in Kingman.

RUSSIAN PREJUDICE.

That Government's Antipathy to Jews.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—A party of prominent New Yorkers, consisting of Oscar Strauss, ex-minister to Turkey, Joseph Seligman, Julius Goldman, Col. John B. Weber and M. S. Isaacs, had a conference with Secretary Gresham today. It is understood the delegation asked that some action be taken with a view to having this government insist that passports to American citizens of the Jewish faith, who contemplate visiting Russia shall be recognized by Russian consuls at various ports.

The recent refusal of the Russian consul at New York to countermand the passport of a Jewish woman, whose husband is an American citizen, on the ground that his government forbade him doing so, is said to be the underlying reason for the reported protest. Inquiry at the state department developed the fact that such a law governed consuls of the Russian government and the United States is obliged to recognize it.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

The Case of Mosher the Omaha Banker.

OMAHA, Neb., May 18.—[Associated Press.]—C. W. Mosher, president of the wrecked Capital National bank of Lincoln, was arraigned before Judge Dandy in the United States court this afternoon. The two indictments which have been hanging over him, have been consolidated into one, containing forty specifications, charging embezzlement, forgery and other crimes. To all these charges, Mosher pleaded not guilty. His trial begins next week.

IT LOOKS BAD.

Chinese High Binders Threaten Trouble.

Bloodshed is Feared in San Francisco.

The President Determined to Enforce the Law.

The Chinese Minister Calls at the White House but is Friendly and Promises Assistance.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—The Chronicle prints an article to the effect that a bloody highbinders' war is about to break out in Chinatown. Today placards were posted throughout the Chinese quarter offering a reward of $300 for the life of Gam Lee, president of Sam Yip, the most influential of the Chinese Six Companies. The placards created great commotion among the Chinese as they were an infallible indication that bloodshed was to follow.

Gam Lee immediately notified the police and placed himself under their protection, and besides caused counter placards to be put up offering $500 for information leading to the discovery, arrest and conviction of his pursuers.

The grievances of the highbinders against Gam Lee are several, but his particular offense consisted in advice to all Chinamen not to register under the Geary act. His counsel was largely instrumental in preventing registration. Now that deportation is to be the consequence of their failure to comply with the laws and the highbinders and criminal element expect to be the first to be expelled from the country they propose to hold Gam Lee accountable for their misfortune. Gam Lee has always been an active enemy of the lawless Chinese, and has uniformly assisted the police in breaking them up.

The police say the highbinders who were recently driven out of town have returned and they are confident are preparing for a general onslaught on the Sam Yip family which in its various ramifications comprises about one half the Chinese in the United States. Officers are making active preparations to suppress an outbreak.

In Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Congressman Caminetti of California, had a short conference with the president this morning and left the White House feeling assured that it was the intention of the president to see that the Chinese restriction act is enforced.

Mr. Caminetti denied that it would take anything like the sum of money estimated to enforce the act, for the reason that those who were entitled to remain would secure certificates at their own expense and those against whom the law is really aimed would be frightened out of the country the moment an attempt is made to enforce it. Mr. Caminetti is of the opinion that what additional money may be needed will be voted at the next session of congress, and he fears no repeal of the law.

The Chinese minister, accompanied by his English speaking secretary of the legation, called at the state department this afternoon and had a conference with Secretary Gresham in regard to the supreme court decision affirming the constitutionality of the Geary act. He gave no intimation whatever of any intention to suspend diplomatic relations with the United States, but on the contrary indicated his purpose of quieting affairs in China as much as possible.

Bureau of American Republics.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The secretary of state has accepted the resignation of Wm. F. Curtis as director of the bureau of American republics and directed Frederick Emery, secretary of the bureau, to take charge until a successor to Curtis is named.

AT THE SHOW.

The Sunday Closing Question Still Up.

A Tilt Between the Friends and Enemies of Theodore Thomas—California Fruit Exhibit.

CHICAGO, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—Three carloads of exhibits for the California building reached the fair today, making thus far a total of 71 cars that have arrived from California for the state exhibit, not including shipments by private exhibitors. The national commission had an interesting session today. The report of the committee on music, calling for the resignation of Theodore Thomas as director of music, was adopted by a vote of 39 to 19. There was a heated discussion over the report. The friends of Thomas are making a strong fight for him. Whether the commission has the power to enforce the committee's report is a question yet to be decided.

The knowledge that the Sunday opening question was to be discussed by the national committee, caused much interest. A large bunch of telegrams protesting against the opening were laid on President Palmer's desk. A resolution adopted by the local directory to revoke the Sunday closing rule and refund the money appropriated by congress, was brought before the commission and after a short discussion it was referred to the judiciary committee.

The dedication of the Illinois state building occurs tomorrow. Warm clear weather today, and the Norwegian exercises brought the attendance at the fair up to nearly 50,000.

Army Appointments.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—[Associated Press.]—The president has appointed Col. Wm. P. Carlin, of the Fourth United States infantry, to be brigadier general to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Brigadier General F. A. Carr. The president also appointed Capt. Wm. H. Hawmer of the Thirtieth Infantry, paymaster in the army with the rank of Major.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The bicycle meet on May 30 promises to be an interesting and exciting affair and the greatest "bike" event ever witnessed west of Denver and south of San Francisco.

The themes of Mr. Braden's lecture tonight in Gardiner's hall will be: "Does the Bible Sanction Polygamy?" "The Wars and Customs of Wars of the Bible." "Is the Bible an Indecent book?"

Tucson yesterday made a draft on Phoenix's medical skill. Dr. Hughes in response to a telegram left last night for the ancient Pueblo to attend a patient who is critically ill. He will return tomorrow morning.

O. T. Alter, the young man who went to jail on principle day before yesterday, decided yesterday that the principle however worthy, was an inconvenient one. He furnished the $1,000 bond under which he had been placed.

Said a gentleman yesterday watching a passing street car, "I suggest that the word 'nativism' be changed in that sign. There are lots of people here who need a bath, but don't know what 'Nativism' means. Call it swimming school."

Mrs. W. K. Porter yesterday kindly sent to the prisoners in the county jail a large quantity of reading matter consisting of a dozen numbers of the Cosmopolitan, as many of the Illustrated American, several numbers of Puck and other periodicals.

The librarian of the territorial library make complaint that many persons, that is, lawyers, who borrow books, neglect to return them. Unless there is a correction of this defect of the legal memory, a rule will be enforced permitting no books to be taken from the library rooms.

One thing which indicates as much as any other the confidence of eastern capital in Phoenix, is the fixing of loans within the past week to the amount of $30,000 at 8 per cent on real estate. The era of New Phoenix is rapidly coming. Ten and twelve per cent money is fading into the past along with adobe buildings.

The Engine company last night elected James Blankenship, Fred Blank and Ethan Allen, members and appointed John Beck and W. F. Schaller, fire policemen. Each company now has two such policemen. The revised roll call of the Engine company show fifteen members, just two short of a full complement.

A FOREST OF ICE.

A Fearful Experience in Antarctic Waters.

The Thurland Castle's Crew Had So Lively a Time They Forgot This Was Not Leap Year.

NEW YORK, May 17.—[Associated Press.]—After dodging February icebergs for 270 miles of Antarctic water it is not strange, perhaps, that the man who kept the log should forget that this is not leap year.

At all events, the British bark Thurland Castle, which arrived here yesterday from Iquique, Chili, after a voyage of 110 days, during three of which she was in constant danger of being "nipped" between mountains of ice, reports bergs tall and numerous on February 29, as well as on the three days preceding.

Some of them were 400 feet high and a quarter of a mile long and were visible at a distance of thirty miles. At times the bark was in imminent danger.

It is a queer story, if a little out of season now. The first ice was sighted early on the morning of February 26, and at two o'clock in the afternoon the lookout had counted seventy-three bergs of gigantic size, while hundreds of others stretched away in stately majesty ahead.

All the next day the ship crept through a forest of bergs, the sea between them being filled with floes. The passage between the bergs was extremely narrow at times, and the bark narrowly escaped being "nipped." All hands were kept on the lookout continually, but at two A. M. on February 27 the vessel almost brushed an enormous mass of ice which was not discovered until it was right alongside. A gale sprang up at daylight and the danger was greatly increased, as the sea was still full of towering ice. While luffing up to avoid a berg the main sheet parted and the ship nearly crashed into the ice before the damage could be repaired.

The first ice was encountered in latitude 51 deg. 43 min. south 72 min. west. The average temperature of the air in the ice field was 44 degrees and that of the water 42 degrees.
